

Dr Michael D. Taliadoros

BSc. (Hons) Univ. of London
MBBS (St Mary's, Univ. of London)
FRCS (England)
FRCS (Edinburgh)

General Surgeon

Born in Nicosia, Cyprus. Secondary school education at the English School, Nicosia. Qualified in Medicine at St Mary's Hospital Medical School, University of London, U.K. As an undergraduate at St Mary's, received the Pharmacology Prize and Certificate of Merit in Anatomy.

Trained in General Surgery at the Middlesex Hospital, University College Hospital and the Royal Free Hospital in London. Became a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh in 1987 and a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England in 1988. Worked in various surgical posts in the United Kingdom until 1992.

Appointed as General Surgeon at Larnaca General Hospital from 1993 to 2000. From October 2000 appointed Consultant in General Surgery at the Apollonion Private Hospital in Nicosia.

Main interests are in laparoscopic and colorectal surgery, and the applications of informatics in medicine and general surgery in particular.

Member of Council of the Cyprus Surgical Society 1996-1997. Founding Member & Ex-Member of Council of the Cyprus Society of Medical Informatics.